

Please, please, please don't change Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. The calls and the hang-ups were driving us crazy before IN gave us this relief. I don't know when we've received such a gift. As retired people we deserve some peace and quiet. If you pass something with less effect you will be doing a great disservice to all.